International Security Assistance Management

The Defense Institute of Security Assistance Management (DISAM) Journal is published quarterly. It is not an official publication of the Department of Defense (DoD); in the event of a conflict between any information published herein and official policy guidance, the current official regulation, directive, or other instruction should be followed. Unless otherwise stated, the views expressed herein are those of the contributing authors or the DISAM editorial staff, and are not necessarily those of DoD, other government agencies, departments, or any of their organizational elements. Material may be reprinted if credit is given to The DISAM Journal and to the author, except for copyright material which requires special reprint authority. Manuscripts are subject to expert and peer review, internally and externally, to assure technical accuracy, appropriate official policies, and proper regard for security. Readers are encouraged to submit articles and items which may be of interest to the security assistance community. Articles are normally from 1500-5000 words. Images or photos should be submitted as glossy prints or in JPEG or TIFF format at a minimum resolution of 200 pixels per inch, 300 pixels per inch or larger for cover use consideration. JPEG or TIFF images or photos inserted into Microsoft Word documents should also be sent as separate files. In the interest of clarity and brevity, DISAM reserves the right to make editorial changes to articles submitted for publication. Send all articles, photos, and/or items of information, with any necessary clearance and approval, to DISAM/DR, via internet, Webmaster@disam.dsca.mil; or mail information to DISAM/DR by 1 Dec, 1 Mar, 1 Jun, or 1 Sep for inclusion in the upcoming edition. It is DoD policy that all information prepared by DoD employees be reviewed for clearance by appropriate security review in public affairs offices.

This form should be completed by the appropriate public affairs official and forwarded with the proposed article. All submissions and or changes are preferred in electronic format using Microsoft Word. Requests for changes to The DISAM Journal distribution list should be directed to Webmaster@disam.dsca.mil, or mailed to:
